I, Claudine Dombrowski or AMMPP (again only I am AMPP) state that everything you Bill have said about AMPP is and has been and likely to remain "intentionally distorted and inaccurate." Let the record be clear, I, and I alone maintain the website www.AmericanMothers.PoliticalParty.org Bill, you know this -- and always have.

because 'he thinks' something - and his excuse for 'his' own actions and behavior is to 'hide behind American Mothers Political Party website (AMPP). I would ask, "Why would someone do this?" However, I long ago stopped asking that and worrying about those types of people who feed on the frailty of vulnerable people.

Bill, I have not threatened you, I have not, nor do I have the power to stop your goal. No copy right violations (I do know them, just ask PBS). I had thought, the concept of LA was a good idea, is why it saddened me (when, although I have broad shoulders) that you systematically began removing mothers who have been 'battered' by the fathers of their children, in horrendous ways, because you- 'gave them' (bill almighty) a chance to disengage with American Mothers Political Party or to 'tell' their side of story, wow!! Talk about demanding and classic black mail - and you do, hold that power - 'control' of fear over them with their personal, sensitive and life threatening information, entrusted to you, a power which you have misused and freely wield.

You see, I need no public support, the truth is self-sustained. I will not hurt others to prop myself up. I will not alter, nor publish or intimidate others so basically I just ignore you. As I

I at the end of my journey wanted to give one last contribution to the cause the movement. Not that I haven't given everything, my life my family, my entire everything, but because I want to give something that can be used to further the basic human rights of mothers

I created AMPP. As my last contribution to the future. My health dictates it, and to the end my goal is mothers human rights to life. I actually am NOT active and most moms I do not know new horrors another generation-- but will support as a whole all mothers as mothers alone are humanity's only hope. I did so as a Barrier site and hopeful day political party. Or whatever the mothers decided was needed. They are the change they are the power, not I, not Lundy not any one thing and mostly the cure is yet to be found. But I can write this gobbledygook letter with extreme difficulty and say that I am proud of the mothers, my generations sacrifice the new generations actions to speak out.

Obviously, Pretty powerful stuff to be so effective and cause such attention and I am not even there, past tweeting social media mobile technology. I have no idea what the whos are the news are only that its the same its bad it worst is deadly. But the Mothers created what they need and they have done well!!
As much as many think that I am that good, that creative. I am not. I can barely type these days, Brain damage from the beatings now takes hold, old age heart... stroke...

But to empower others is awesome. To help pave the path to be able to say it was not all in vain, hopefully.
As I recall the years I was advocating senate lawmakers my AG my DV orgs -- who are you with?? was always the question?
Well, God forbid I say I am a battered mom, so I would say anything. Stop Family Violence, or any one or good thing that exposed the reality so that I could further change thinking on the local, state and federal levels.
